

The Clarke County Easement Authority is sponsoring a photo contest to celebrate the opening of the Clarke County Historical Association's new exhibit: "Our Land Is Our Legacy."

- Community members are invited to submit photos they've taken of open space in Clarke County. Landscape, nature study, etc.
- Maximum size: 8" x 10".
- Contest begins October 26, 2009 and ends January 15, 2010.
- Winning entries –First, Second, Third, and Honorable Mention, plus up to ten Special Merit winners, will be exhibited in February at Berryville Main Street's Fire House Gallery located in downtown Berryville, Virginia.

- Up to three entries per person—delivered electronically or mailed on a CD.

Electronic Image: Send a separate jpeg file for each entry, labeled with your name and a number (1, 2, 3 if submitting more than one), to photocontest@centeringdesign.com. Subject line: "Easement Authority Photo Contest". Include contact info (name, address, phone number, etc.).

The contest will be judged by noted commercial and editorial photographer, Matthew Klein, whose magnificent photos of Clarke County are included in the "Our Land Is Our Legacy" exhibit.

Klein has taught at Parsons School of Design and Pratt Institute in New York. During his career, he has photographed fifty-seven cookbooks—and written one, The Joy of Ice Cream. Winner of numerous awards, Klein's exhibitions include "Graphics in the City" in Milan, Italy with Milton Glaser, which featured over 3,000 photographs describing the depth and scope of urban graphic expression. A resident of New York City, Klein spends as much time as possible in Clarke County photographing its beautiful landscape.

The Easement Authority retains the right to reproduce winning photos. Photographers will receive a photo credit. Proceeds from sales will go towards preserving open space in Clarke County.
